Letter from N .S.Arunachalam Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Bellary, Ref. No. 4869/38-A-4, dated 17th May 1939.

Sri P.Venkataramana Rao, Ex.Taluk Head Accountant, Rayadrug died of pnuemonia on 29th November 1938. He has left behind him his widow who has no issues and relations legally bound to support her. The assets and liabilities of the deceased are set out by the Revenue Divisional Officer, Bellary in his report Ref. C.7639/38, dated 20th April 1939 which is enclosed. Creditors Nos. 5 to 7 are the relatives of the widow and No. 4 is a cook in the house of No.5. None of them possesses any documentary evidence. Creditors 1 to 3 have given their statements stating the actual amounts due to them from the deceased. These are further supported by an entry in the accounts of the respective creditors. Item No. 3 under liabilities is said to be an accumulated rent of the house in which the deceased was put up at Hayadrug. Items Nos. 1 to 3 under liabilities therefore may be accepted as genuine, but not items 4 to 7 as laid down in Government Circular Memo No. 27585 dated 10th October 1978. The net assets therefore come upto Rs.2072-0-9 which is less than 24 months pay Rs.100 per mensem last drawn by the deceased. P.Venkamma, the widow of the deceased, therefore is entitled to the sanction of gratuity under G.O. No. 120 Finance (Pension) dated 22nd March 1932. In view of the long devoted service of 29 years put in by the deceased, I recommend the sanction of gratuity equal to six months pay Viz. Rs.600/- to P.Venkamma, the widow of the deceased.

2. The record of enquiry, descriptive roll, a statement of particulars as required by Board's Resolution No. Mis. 2504, dated 10th August 1971 and the Service Registers of the deceased are enclosed for reference and return.

Letter from A.D.Cromie Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Collector of Bellary, Ref. No. 4869/78-A-4, dated 4th July 1979.-

Ref.- Board's Ref. D.3629/79-1, dated 21st June 1979.

Sri P.Venkataramana Rao, late Taluk Head Accountant Hayadrug, died of pneumonia after a long service of about 29 years. In view of his honest and satisfactory work throughout, the Revenue Divisional Officer, Bellary, recommended the sanction of six months pay as gratuity to Venkamma, his widow. My predecessor, Mr. K.M.Unnithan after consulting his confidential sheet agreed with the Revenue Divisional Officer's recommendation. His confidential sheet shows that Sri P.Venkataramana Rao has rendered devoted and meritorious services through his long service and I consider that the recommendation already made in this Office Ref. 4869/38-A-4, dated 17th May 1939 is justified.

REFERENCE:

Submitted to the Government.

2. The Board recommends the grant of a compassionate gratuity of Rs.600/- (Rupees six hundry only) to the widow payable at the Huzur Treasury, Bellary.

To,

The Collector of Bellary District,

Bellary.

P.Venkamma, widow of P.Venkatarama Rao, late Head-Accountant, Bellary Taluk
Office, -Head-Accountant; Tq.Office,
Raydrug; - C/O.Mr.P.Samarao, B.A.B.L
Vakil, Gandhinagar, Bellary. ... Petitioner.

The petitioner abovenamed begs to bring these following lines for the kind consideration and redress, of the Government of Madras; -

1. That her husband, the said P.Venkatarama Rao after a long service of about 28 years and 3 months died issueless on or about 29-11-38 at Raydrug, Bellary Dt., while on duty as the Taluk Head-Accountant at Raydrug Taluk Office. He died suddenly of pneumonia after a short illness of about a week.

2. That he was earning about Rs.100/-as his pay per month, and excepting this source of income he had no other source.

3. Although issueless, he had families of younger brothers, (1) Krishtappa, teacher, District Board Elementary School, Yegdehal, Kudligi Tq., (2) Sitharamappa, purohit, Maraganakuntla, Bagepalli Tq., Kolar Dt., Mysore Province, and others-all very poor people, depending upon this income of his for their maintenance. So much so, the said Venkatarama Rao could not save any money for either his or the petitioner's maintenance in case of unforeseen contingencies of the present sort.

4. That on account of his said brothers' family necessities and on account of the petitioner's illness as well, he had to incur some minor debts which have now accumulated to to about Rs.1400/-and odd, He has left behind him no properties whatsoever. The only saving of his is the Provident Fund amount which has now accumulated to about Rs.1450/- If these debts are paid out-as they ought to be-the petitioner is left practically with nothing for her maintenance and upkeep. The petitioner has not got even a house to live in.

The petitioner is thereforea pauper. She is homeless, and her parental family is also too poor to maintain her. She has no Stridhanam properties at all. Her husband did not leave behind him any lands from the produce of which she could have otherwise maintained herself. He was not a member of The Non-Gazetted Officers Association, and he had not insured his life.

That her husband had only about one and a half years for him for compulsary retirement. As a clerk of the Collectorate, extending over a period of about 28 years and 3 months, his services were quite honest, and thoroughly satisfactory to all his superior Officers. He was noted for good-work, meekness, obedience, and honesty, not to say the least about his loyalty and faithfulness.

The petitioner's case is therefore deserving of every consideration by the benign Government, and there is no bar to the granting of any Compassionate allowance to her in the above circumstances.

That the Government have been pleased to grant Compassionate allowance in several cases of this kind.

The petitioner threfore prays your honour may be pleased to recommend to the Government for a Compassionate Allowance being granted to her, taking into consideration her late husband's sudden death, after a long, honest, and loyal services to the Government for a period of about 28 years and 3 months.

which act of kindness the petitioner for ever will pray for your our's long life and properity.

Sir,

* Pension - compassionate grauity - P.Venkamma - widow of late P.Venkatramana Rao.- late Taluk Head Accountant - Taluk office - Rayadrug report-submitted.

Your N.Ref.4869/38A4 dated 21-12-38 enclosed.

Sri. P.Venkataramana Rao, Head Accountant Taluk office, Rayadrug died issueless on 29-11-38 after putting in a service of about 29 years and two months in the Revenue Department. P.Venkamma, the widow of the deceased has applied for gratuity in consideration of the long service rendered by her late husband. The deceased has two brothers one Kristappa, a school master in an Elementary School in Kudligi and the other Sitaramappa, a purohit in Kolar District. Both are said to be too poor to support the widow. She states that her father B.Appu Rao who was once a karnam is now unemployed and is living in Buchepalli village of Hindupur Taluk, that her brother B.N.Sarma who is a clerk under a merchant is getting a salary of Rs.20/- per month and that her brother and her father are not in a position to support her. Sri.P. Sama Rao, Vakil Bellary is a nephew of the widow. He states that he is not prepared to support her.

The inquiry shows the following assets and liabilities of the deceased.

Assets.

G.P.F. amount paid to the widow.	1664-0-0
23 cents of bungalow site in S.No.432/19 purchased from Sri.P.Siva Rao.	400-0-0
5 tolas gold jewels.	160-0-0
	2224-0-0

Liabilities.

1. To Govindappa including interest of Hayadrug.	134-1-0
2. To D.Narayanappa of Hayadrug.	14-10-3.
3. To D.Venkatesappa of Hayadrug.	43-1-0
	191-12-3.
4. To Venkamma.	100-0-0
5. To Mrs. P.Gowramma.	300-0-0
6. T. Sri.B.V.Ramakrishna Rao.	400-0-0
7. To Sri.P.Rama Rao.	500-0-0
	1300-0-0
Total.	1491-12-3.

Creditors 5 to 7 are the relations of the widow and creditor 4 is a cook in Sri...Siva Rao's house. Sri.P.Siva Rao is the husband of creditor No.5. None of the creditors referred to in items 4 to 7 have any documents. They have stated that they advanced the amounts to the deceased on trust Creditors 1 to 3 are residents of Hayadrug and they have given their statements showing the actual amounts due to them from the deceased. The Tahsildar Hayadrug is being asked to report direct to you to save delay whether the amounts shown by them find place in their accounts. If his report is in the affirmative ~~the~~, the liability of Rs.191-12-3 will have to be accepted. As the creditors 5 to 7 are the relatives of the widow and creditor 4 the servant of her relative, it is a matter for consideration how far their statements can be accepted as true. According to para 2 of G.O. Circular Memo No.23525 dated 10-10-38 vague statements from relatives are of no use whatsoever in deciding the amount of gratuity to be granted. If the liabilities of Nos.4 to 7 i.e., Rs.1300/- are not taken into account for the reason that they are not supported by documentary evidence, the net liabilities work⁄ upto Rs.191-15-3 and the net assets to Rs.(2224—191-15-3 i.e.,2032-0-9. It is therefore seen that the total assets after deducting the genuine liabilities fall short of 24 month pay of the deceased i.e., Rs.2400. I recommend a gratuity of 6 months pay, as the deceased has left behind no sons who can look after the widow.

This office file containing 40 pages and the service registers of the deceased in two volumes are enclosed.

Mar Sir

You will kindly remember that when you were the Collector of Bellary, I pressed the claims of Venkamma, the widow of late P. Venkata Ramaiah Rao, who died as the Head-accountant of the Taluq office at Rayadurg for Compassionate Allowance. You were prepared to recommend it to the Govt. on the eve of your departure: but the papers were not ready.

Your Successor should see commended her case to the favorable and the papers are pending in your office:

There seem to have been references and Counter-references:

May I request you to explain the matter and to see that the poor destitute widow gets her deserved Honorarium?

Yours Sincerely.
